

NATIONAL GUILD OF PEARL K MCGOWN HOOKRAFTERS, INC

Thank you for your interest in joining the National Guild of Pearl K. McGown Hookrafters! We are delighted you have decided to join a national group which focuses on the tradition and history of our craft while welcoming and embracing new techniques and traditions.

The guild was formed by Pearl K. McGown to bring together rug hookers like yourself with an interest in learning more about your craft and who appreciate rug hooking as an art. The Guild has a rich tradition and works to preserve the history of rug hooking. It is an open guild welcoming the work of those who prefer all styles of rug hooking, be it fine cut or wide. McGown members enjoy patterns from all sources and delight in original designs, while remembering and honoring the talented rug hookers who have come before us. Access to grants for exhibitions, a large library of loanable materials, and educational information on our webpage are a few of the perks of membership.
